COMEZ IS CONFIDENT

Congress Will Keep Promises Made to Cubans.

ORDER WILL BE RESTORED.

He Looks With Much Favor Upon the Plan of Creating a Civil Guard Formed For the Most Part of Cuban Soldiers.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Following is an extract from a letter received by Senor Quesada from General Gomez, written Oct. 20:

"I have full confidence in the solemn promises made by the congress of Washington, and for that reason I do not have any fear as to the independence of Cuba. Some time must elapse before our ideal will be realized; but after so many struggles and privations we can wait a little longer.

"The military occupation by the United States is to a certain extent necessary to prepare and hurry the evacuation of the Spanish and to bring about harmony among the different factors in Cuban politics.

"During this military occupation the republican government will be organized. Its decisions will be finally accepted by all; order will reign everywhere. Those who speak now of annexation try to satisfy, above all, their spite by propagating unfounded fears as to personal security and private property. The final success of our struggle has required necessary destruction of property which the enemy used to its advantage, but we have never attacked individuals. The struggle against Spain is now ended; we commence now a more delicate and difficult task—namely, to make our republican political system triumph and to reconstruct the country.

"It is not an easy labor, and all men who love their country should contribute to it; for that reason I can not retire now, notwithstanding my 61 years. Most of the officers and soldiers went into the field obeying my orders; I can not abandon them until their future is assured. They have lost everything they had, they have a right to some compensation, and above all to their salaries; the new government must secure them. The disbandment can not occur until the Spaniards have evacuated; my men can not be abandoned without bread or work to the mercy of their enemies. A solution could be found, perhaps, in the plan which the American government is said to have of creating a native civil guard formed in the majority of Cuban soldiers. This organization would offer the advantage of not exposing the American troops to the deadly climate of the island, and at the same time would employ people who know the country thoroughly. In the meanwhile and until the evacuation occurs food must be provided for my soldiers.

"The evacuation should be as rapid as possible, and afterwards everything will be arranged, for the American government will fulfill its moral pledges to us. Some have tried to make us suspicious so as to bring about trouble, but before doubting of the good faith of the American people we must wait for acts which shall give the lie to their solemn pledge."

Fifth Ohio Mustered Out.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—The Fifth Ohio volunteer regiment was mustered out of service and the men paid off here. They received a total of $108,000. The officers and many of the privates were anxious to have the regiment remain in the service, and strong pressure was brought to bear upon the war department, through Senator Hanna and others, with this end in view. Secretary Alger finally wired on Thursday last that if 600 members signed a petition asking that the regiment remain in service it would be done. The necessary number of signatures required, however, could not be obtained, and the regiment was ordered to be mustered out.

Will Go to Chicago.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7.—The war investigation committee began its last day's work in Cincinnati with one of the three members absent, General Sexton having gone to his home in Chicago in advance of the others. The commission will meet at 9 a. m. Monday at the Auditorium hotel in Chicago. They earnestly request any persons having personal knowledge of abuses and mismanagement to appear and testify on Monday or Tuesday.

Santiago, Nov. 7.—An insurgent captain and lieutenant have been arrested at Guantanamo for holding up a man on the street and taking away his machete, which they afterward sold for $2.50. They denied that they were under any obligation to pay for it, and claimed exemption from trial and imprisonment on the ground of their rank in the Cuban army.

One Hundred Deaths Reported.

Malaga, Spain, Nov. 7.—The Spanish transport steamer Gran Antilla, Captain Bayona, from Havana on Oct. 13, via Porto Rico, with repatriated Spanish troops on board, has arrived here and reports that there were 100 deaths among the soldiers during the voyage across the Atlantic.

Will Go to Winter Camps.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The order which designates the troops to occupy different portions of Cuba has raised a question as to whether or not it is the intention of the war department to have the troops go direct from their present camps to Cuba, instead of occupying the southern winter camps selected some time ago. It can be stated that such is not the intention, and the troops will be moved from Knoxville and Lexington and Middletown to these camps very soon. It is believed that the transfer will be beneficial to the troops.

The Vulcan at Hampton Roads.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 7.—The repair ship Vulcan arrived in Hampton Roads. She started from Santiago with the Maria Teresa, together with the tugs Merritt and Leonidas. The night the Teresa went down she lost track of the two tugs, and after a fruitless search for them started for Hampton Roads. The men on the Vulcan were gratified to learn that the Merritt had arrived at Charleston, as they feared that she had been lost.

Artillerymen Ordered to Manila.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Lieutenant Colonel Henry Wagner, Fourth cavalry, assumed command of the presidio, relieving Major David H. Kinzie, who succeeded General Miller temporarily. General Merriam has ordered that 65 men and officers of the California heavy artillery be added to the troops going to Manila on the City of Puebla, which is now scheduled to sail on Sunday.

First Kentucky Complimented.

Ponce, Porto Rico, Nov. 7.—A large and representative body of Porto Ricans have drawn up a petition addressed to President McKinley asking the government to retain in Porto Rico Colonel John B. Castleman and the First Kentucky volunteers. General Henry has cabled to Washington that the compliment is thoroughly deserved, but that the regiment ought to go north.

Soldier Kills a Courtesan.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 7.—Private William Kane, company E, Third Kentucky, whose home is at Carlisle, Ky., shot and killed a woman named Maud McClure at a house of ill fame here. Kane snapped the gun in the woman's face several times. He claimed not to know it was loaded, but other women in the house say he had threatened to kill the McClure woman.

Expects a Fat Salary.

Santiago, Cuba, Nov. 7.—Many people are arriving here with letters from senators. One man is virtually appointed by Secretary Alger as collector of customs at Manzanillo. He expects about three times the salary of the Cuban now holding the position.

Death of Sister Larkin.

Washington, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from General Brooke at San Juan announces the death of Sister Mary Larkin, contract nurse, of typhoid.

Arrested For Swindling.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Wilhelm Lodtman, once a wealthy lumber dealer of Bohemia and later a lieutenant in the German army, is under arrest in this city charged with swindling. Lodtman admits having passed worthless checks and drafts in various parts of the country during the last three years, but claims that the whole amounted to only $1,000, most of which he paid back. The police assert, however, that Lodtman has secured several thousand dollars, and was about to pass a worthless draft for a large sum at Port Huron, Mich., when captured.

Tuesday's Election Will Settle It.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The control of the United States senate will be determined very largely by the result of the elections next Tuesday, when 23 states elect legislatures, which will in turn elect senators. The present party strength in the senate is as follows: Republicans, 43; Democrats, 34; Populists, 6; Silver Republicans, 6. This gives a majority to no one party, and it has proved a fruitful source of doubt in legislation influenced by party lines.

Stranded Crew Safe.

New York, Nov. 7.—The Ward line steamer Saratoga from Nassau, Nov. 2, brought to this city Captain G. C. Benner and five men of the crew of the schooner Jennie F. Willey, which was stranded on Oct. 23 at Walker's cove, while bound from Jacksonville for Martinique.

Claims Self-Defense.

Williamstown, Ky., Nov. 7.—Henry Jones was held in lieu of $2,500 bond for manslaughter in killing Albert Jeffers. He claims self-defense.

EXPLOSION IN CAPITOL

United States Supreme Court Room Wrecked.

FIRE ALSO DOES DAMAGE.

The Force of the Explosion Was Terrific, Doors and Windows Being Blown Out and Large Cracks Made in Basement Walls.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The United States supreme court room, located near the center of the Capitol, is wrecked, the valuable library connected with it seriously damaged, and many of the valuable records of the court filed away in vaults beneath that portion of the Capitol have been destroyed. This is the result of an explosion of gas, which occurred in the sub-basement of the Capitol just beneath the supreme court room.

The explosion destroyed the flooring and entrance to the room immediately below the supreme court room, and the fire which followed communicated at once to the law library and the supreme court room. Except for a small flame of burning gas the fire had been extinguished at 7:30. The explosion destroyed the lighting apparatus in the immediate vicinity, and because of the darkness it is difficult to learn the exact damage. Those about the building at the time of and immediately after the explosion all agree that it came from gas, though there is a difference of opinion as to what caused it. An engineer in the building stated that a gas meter had exploded. Another official stated that he understood a small gas engine used in running the private elevator for the members of the supreme court was located in the vaults and that the explosion came from it, but the most plausible statement is that in the vaults where the records are stored gas jets continually burn.

It is believed that one of these jets blew out from a draught and that the gas escaped from it until the tightly closed vault had been filled with gas, which, percolating through cracks, reached a lighted jet, thus causing the explosion.

An examination of the lower portion of the building shows that the force of the explosion was terrific. Doors and windows are blown out, and in many places there are large cracks in the underpinning of the walls. A statement, which the conditions do not permit of being substantiated at this time, was made that several of the supporting columns to the main entrance to the building are six inches out of plumb. There is no doubt that many valuable papers and documents have been permanently destroyed, and their value from a money standpoint can not be estimated.

The fire engines attracted an immense throng to the plaza where our presidents are inaugurated, and the news of the fire spread rapidly throughout the city. As a matter of precaution engines are still pumping water into the library, the supreme court room and the sub-basement, but no fire is visible. Twenty thousand dollars had just been expended in improving the supreme court room.

ELECTION DAY WEATHER.

Rain Is Predicted For the Upper Ohio Valley by Weather Chief.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The following special forecast covering election day weather east of the Rocky mountains has been issued by the chief of the weather bureau:

Rain is indicated for the middle Atlantic and New England states and the upper Ohio valley and the eastern lake region. In the states of the middle and upper Mississippi and lower Ohio valleys and western lake region, rain Monday night in southern and rain or snow in northern parts of the districts named. Will be followed Tuesday by clearing, colder weather. Fair weather is indicated for Tuesday for all districts west of the Mississippi and in the southern states.

Will Return to France.

Paris, Nov. 7.—The Matin confirms the report that the government will instruct Major Marchand to return to France with his expedition from Fashoda by way of Jibuti, on the Gulf of Aden, "the only route consistent with French dignity." The paper expresses the hope that the national flag "will not again be involved in such small colonial enterprises unless success is assured beforehand, both diplomatically and by adequate support."

Washington, Nov. 7.—The third national congress of mothers will be held in Washington in February, 1899, beginning Tuesday, Feb. 14, and continuing four days. All clubs or organizations intending to affiliate with the national body should do so immediately in order to secure voting representation at the coming congress.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

Several People Killed By Collapse of New Theater at Detroit.

Detroit, Nov. 7.—The roof of the new Wonderland theater collapsed at 1:45 p. m., carrying down the iron galleries of the structure and a great mass of scaffolding and debris. Some 25 men were working under the collapsed parts of the structure. Scarcely any of these have escaped injury. The bodies of six dead men have already been recovered. Several others are fatally injured. The side wall of the 4-story structure is bulging threateningly. The hospital ambulances are busy carrying away the dead and the wrecked theater is surrounded by a great crowd of people. The new building is owned by the Barbour estate. It is situated on Monroe avenue, adjoining the Detroit Opera House and opposite the City hall.

A Stab of Club Men.

London, Nov. 7.—The statement of Ernest Terah Hooley, the bankrupt company promoter, during the bankruptcy examination brought forth a crop of disclaimers from titled and other gentlemen, whose participation in his profits, according to Mr. Hooley's evidence, was in no wise creditable. Mr. Hooley's revelation regarding the Carlton club and the part played by the Marquis of Abergavenny and Sir William Marriott has caused qualms among the club men. His statements give the key to the meaning of a paragraph in Mr. Henry Labouchere's Truth, setting forth that a former millionaire was about to expose the committee of a great West End club, which, having accepted money to secure his election to membership, had his name erased from the books without returning the money, when he was adjudicated a bankrupt.

Moral Victory For Temperance.

London, Nov. 7.—The temperance party won a moral victory this week in attacking the sale of intoxicants within the houses of parliament, which is in the anomalous position of breaking the laws made by its members. The action was an appeal from the decision of a magistrate, who held that the licensing act did not apply to the houses of parliament and the appeal court practically admitted that the magistrate's decision was wrong, in view of the present state of the licensing law. But the court dismissed the appeal on a technical point. The lord chief justice, Baron Russell of Killowen, however, recommends parliament to pass a bill legalizing its position.

An Engineer's Mishap.

Alliance, O., Nov. 7.—Joseph Desmond, fireman on a Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago locomotive drawing a fast passenger train near Columbiana, O., suddenly discovered that Engineer W. H. Sourbeck was not at his post, nor on the engine. The fireman promptly stopped the train. Conductor Holloway ordered the train run back and Engineer Sourbeck was found lying unconscious with his skull badly fractured. His injuries will likely prove fatal. It is thought he climbed out upon the running board and losing his balance fell to the ground.

Japan Will Investigate.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—The Japanese government is taking steps to determine for certainty whether or not the Emperor of China is alive. According to advices received here by the Japanese mail steamer Riojun Maru, Minister Yao has been dispatched to Peking, with instructions to demand a personal interview with the emperor. If refused, the Japanese government will consider Kaung dead. That the reform movement may be given backing, the Japanese are going to assemble a fleet of war vessels as soon as possible.

A Marauding Band.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7.—The Kobe News, under date of Oct. 14, says: "The latest telegrams respecting the risings in the neighborhood of Chung King state that it is a movement against the missionaries on the part of a marauding band led by one Yu Mak Tze. The French church, hospital and school, and also the American Methodist church at Hong Chou, about 50 miles from Chung King, have been destroyed. The ranks of the marauders are constantly being swelled, and the lawless mob now numbers about 25,000."

Will Hear War Minister.

Paris, Nov. 7.—The Gaulois says the court of cassation has decided to hear the minister of war, M. De Freycinet, in its investigation into the Dreyfus case, and that the court will content itself with his statements, without insisting upon seeing the secret documents in the case.

Dunkirk Glass Workers Resume.

Pittsburg, Nov. 7.—The committee of window-glass workers from Dunkirk, Ind., that came here to investigate the situation before returning to work at the terms agreed upon last week, wired home to resume, and word was received later that the four Dunkirk factories had started operations.

RUM AND IGNORANCE

Govern the United States, Says a Havana Paper.

LUQUE'S BREEZY REPORT

Praises the Cubans' Orderly Government in Gibara, and Gives a Gauzy Account of the Shortcomings of the Americans.

Havana, Nov. 7.—General Luque, Spanish military governor of the Holguin division, on leaving Gibara for Spain wrote, it is understood, to Captain General Blanco to the effect that Gibara, prior to the American occupation, had been governed in an orderly fashion by the Cubans, who had named municipal officials whose sober direction of affairs commanded the respect of the Spanish.

But when the Americans entered the town Colonel Ray, according to the report of General Luque's letter, tore the Cuban flag down from all the public buildings, trampled on it, freely insulted the Cubans and allowed his men to indulge in drunken carousals. When the Spanish troops were embarking, wrote General Luque, some 4,000 Cubans lined the road along which the evacuating Spaniards, with Luque at their head, marched to the wharf. The Spaniards raised the cheer, "Viva Espana!" which was lustily answered by the Cubans as a direct affront to the Americans, after which the Cubans retired to a place called Bujari, near Gibara, where they fortified themselves, "defying American authority." This is generally reported as the tenor of Luque's note.

El Diario de la Marina publishes a fierce editorial attack upon the United States, declaring that "the whole country is governed by rum and ignorance."

MILES UNDER THE SEA

Lies the Unlucky Maria Teresa of the Late Spanish Navy.

Washington, Nov. 7.—The news of the loss of the Spanish cruiser came to the navy department in a telegraph dispatch from Lieutenant Commander Harris received at about 10 a. m.

Secretary Long being temporarily absent from the department, the officials of the navigation bureau, acting under a strict construction of official etiquette, refused to make the dispatch public until the secretary had given his consent. The dispatch reads as follows, under date of Charleston, S. C., Nov. 5:

Arrived here in steamer Merritt with all the crew of the Infanta Maria Teresa, abandoned in heavy northeastern Nov. 1, 30 miles north of San Salvador. Have 55 enlisted men.

Upon the receipt of the news the naval officers attached to the navigation bureau immediately consulted the charts to locate the scene of the disaster.

The first glance satisfied them that the last had been seen of the ill-fated Maria Teresa. As near as they could calculate the vessel lies in about 2,600 fathoms of water, or nearly three miles.

The location is about 235 miles distant from Nassau. At the time the Teresa sunk she was about 310 miles distant from Calmanera, the port from which she started a little over two days before.

Three More Bodies Recovered.

Detroit, Nov. 7.—Three more victims were dug from the ruins of the new Wonderland building, which collapsed Saturday afternoon. This makes the death list so far 11. The bodies recovered were identified as Peter Pfeiffe, carpenter; Frank Wolf, tinner, and Max Pett, who was Wolf's helper. All the injured at the hospitals are reported to be improving except Edward Fischer, who is expected to die. A massmeeting of representative citizens was held in the mayor's office and over $1,000 was subscribed for the relief of the families of those who were killed.

Chinese Emperor In Good Health.

Peking, Nov. 7.—Yano Fumio, the Japanese minister to China, had an audience with the empress dowager and the emperor for the purpose of announcing the decorations conferred upon them by the mikado. The empress dowager was seated one step above the emperor. She made the usual complimentary speech, after which the emperor read a speech couched in similar terms. His majesty seemed in good health.

Big Damages Awarded.

Louisville, Nov. 7.—The jury in the case of Anna Johnson, administratrix, against the Illinois Central railroad, returned a verdict of $10,000 in favor of the plaintiff. Thomas H. Johnson, her husband, was a brakeman on the Illinois Central and was killed by being knocked off a boxcar at the West Clifty water tank in Grayson county. He struck a projecting spout.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1898.

Mark your ballot as above to-morrow, and then vote also for free pikes and for the bonds to pay for them.

VOTE to-morrow for a man who has never broken a promise or deserted a friend. That man is Hon. Mordecai Williams.

BEAR in mind it is the duty of every Democrat in Mason County to give an earnest and loyal support to-morrow to the ticket. The nominee is a gentleman of high character and ability.

THERE is more money in circulation now than at any time in the history of this nation. This is prosperity.—Dover Messenger.

The Republican "boodle" has evidently been distributed at Dover.

EDITOR DUNCAN, of the Brandenburg Messenger, nominates Editor Harry Summers, of the Elizabethtown News, for Governor in the next contest. Harry's all right, not only as an editor but also as an orator. If he should be so fortunate as to receive the nomination he would more than hold his own on the stump with any of 'em.

LAST CALL.

The Democrats of the Ninth district have it in their power to elect Hon. Mordecai Williams to-morrow. All that is necessary is for the party to poll its full vote for the nominee. The drift is our way, and the one thing needed is for every Democrat to do his duty.

There are special reasons why the Democracy of Mason County should, at least, poll the usual majority for the nominee, and every Democrat in the county should work to that end, and strive to increase the majority if possible.

VOTE THE BONDS.

The people of Mason County to-morrow should not hesitate to vote the $60,000 worth of bonds needed to complete the purchase of the turnpikes. These bonds will draw only 4 per cent. interest, and if they are voted the turnpike troubles in Mason County will be practically settled.

Bear in mind, that if the vote is favorable that the Fiscal Court can not issue any more than the $60,000 worth of bonds,—not a single dollar more. Don't be disturbed about that. The court gets its authority from the people and can not issue one cent more than the $60,000, unless the people, at some future election, should vote to increase the bonds.

With the $60,000 bonds the people vote on to-morrow all the six turnpikes mentioned in the notice elsewhere have to be paid for. That is specifically set forth in the order of the court.

Let everybody vote for the bonds and settle the question once for all.

PUGH'S PROMISES.

In its account of the Republican meeting at Ashland Thursday night, the News of that place, a Republican paper, says: Judge Pugh made a most agreeable address, and it was accepted in the best of spirit by all present. Among the things he said, we desire to call attention to that part of his speech where he spoke so patriotically of our young soldiers, who in the late war gave up homes, life and all that was dear to them to fight for the cause of humanity. He gave them to understand that his efforts would be untiring to secure for them what they so richly deserve. That they should all have pensions, he is in favor of heart and soul, and that if they do not get them it will be no fault of his.

Nothing better illustrates the character of the Republican nominee than the above. Promises are his chief stock in trade. He is willing to promise anything for a vote. We presume he long ago promised all the offices at his disposal, and a good many more, and now he is promising pensions to all the soldier boys who enlisted for the war with Spain, whether they ever saw Cuba or got in sight of a Spanish soldier. He places a very low estimate, indeed, upon their patriotism. In fact his miserable effort to buy their votes with such promises is an insult to every true patriot. Such talk as the one Pugh made at Ashland is enough to lose him the support of every good citizen of the district.

COMING OUR WAY.

Conditions Favorable For a Democratic Victory To-morrow.

Williams Will Have to Fight Lots of G. O. P. "Boodle," But Indications Point to His Election.

[Graham Vreeland in Courier Journal.]

MAYSVILLE, KY., Nov. 3.—The drift is the Democratic way in the Ninth congressional district, but on the day of election Mr. Mordecai Williams will be met with money and a superior organization. Were the politicians to keep their money in their pockets Mr. Williams, beyond a doubt, would win by 500 or 1,000 majority. He will have no money in the race, except $100, or a trifle more, raised in several of the stronger Democratic counties, while Mr. Pugh will have many thousands, raised from assessments on revenue employes in the district and from his and Judge Morg. Thomas' pockets.

Yet with all his campaign money, the chances are probably against Congressman Pugh's reelection. An investigation reveals the fact that he has made the shrewdest fight possible under the existing conditions, while Mr. Williams has permitted his campaign * * * to take care of itself, in extenuation of which the excuse is offered that he has been unfortunate in having dangerous sickness in his family for many weeks. If he wins it will be because the natural drift this year is his way. It is believed by the Republicans that a Congressman's salary for two years would be enough to check this drift, and the question is, will Mr. Pugh and his rich father-in-law put up $7,000 or $8,000, the impression being that $2,000 or $3,000 has been contributed by Government employes in the district. There is some strong evidence of this. Ten days ago one of the officials in Collector Comingore's office went to Cynthiana and several other Ninth-district towns. To a stranger with whom he fell into conversation on the train he confided his business, saying that his special mission was to find out how much was needed in several of the Democratic counties. The stranger to whom he talked chanced to be a Democrat and he reported the facts.

Leaving out of consideration the effects of a liberal use of money by the Republicans, it is easy to see why the Democrats think Mr. Williams will surely be elected. If an estimate were based on the vote cast last year, it would be unnecessary to go into details to show why he should win, for the district gave Mr. Shackelford, the Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, a plurality of 606.

But taking the vote of 1896, when McKinley and Pugh carried the district by about 425 plurality, it is still easy to show that Mr. Williams has the best of the present situation. A reliable and generally accepted estimate of the gold Democratic strength in the Ninth district during the 1896 election is 850 or 900. Of this number, about 350 voted for Palmer and Buckner. The others—about 500—went for McKinley and Pugh. Such gold Democratic leaders in the district as the Hon. Max Swinford, of Harrison County, say their talks with members of their former organization convince them that about half the gold Democrats will not vote, and that the remaining half will be about equally divided between Williams and Pugh. This means that 250 of the 500 who supported Pugh before will not vote this year, thus taking that number from his majority of 425, and leaving it 175. Then 125 of the remaining 250 will vote for Williams. As each change from Pugh to Williams means a difference of two in the majority, it would wipe out Pugh's majority and leave a majority of about 75 on the Democratic side. In Boyd County, two years ago, two precincts, with an aggregate Democratic majority of 200, were thrown out by the Republican County Returning Board. Under the Goebel election system that could not happen, as all the county returning boards are Democratic. Therefore, on the basis of 1896, the Democratic majority would be 275, not including the disaffection which has sprung up in Mr. Pugh's own ranks since then. The disaffection is not as considerable as some suppose, yet a few hundred votes count for a great deal in a close and normally Democratic district like this.

In 1896 Mr. Pugh had the advantage of the organization and money used to elect McKinley. The Democrats had no money, but a fine organization. This year they have neither. If the Republicans use a good deal of money they will have just that much advantage, in addition to a better organization, which, however, is none too good of itself.

Down in the Democratic, or western end of the district hardly a hand or voice has been lifted by either side. This is partially due to Mr. Pugh's, or rather

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Judge Thomas' forethought. The Republican nominee has been beating the bushes in the mountain end of the district, which is strongly Republican, and has stirred up some interest among his followers there. He has neglected the Democratic end, and has told his lieutenants not to work, but to play possum until election day, when he would come down like a wolf on the fold and make his finish in that end with plenty of cash. Good earnest work until election day in the Republican end, and good hard cash on election day in the Democratic end is his plan in a nutshell. The Democrats seeing no activity among the Republicans have done nothing. If Pugh's barrel proves to be a big one, it will be all over with Mr. Williams. It must be a big one. Else the Republican scheme will be in vain.

* * * Hon. J. N. Kehoe, who was an aspirant for the Democratic nomination at the Cynthiana convention, wanted to take the stump for Mr. Williams. This is his home county, and it is with him in anything he undertakes. But he was told by Mr. Williams that no speeches were desired; that a still hunt was preferred. Mr. Kehoe * * * made two or three speeches in the district anyhow, and up to this time is the only Democrat who has gone out of his county to do so. Others would have gone had their services as speakers been desired. In Mason County Mr. Kehoe has perfected a fine organization, and only a large sum of money will keep the Democratic majority there below 250 or 300. It gave Mr. Bryan 123 and Mr. Shackelford 236. Mr. Kehoe is of the opinion that Mr. Williams will win. He thinks that but for the use of money by the Republicans the majority would be probably 1,000, as the drift is decidedly in Mr. Williams' favor. He says that two-thirds of the gold Democrats will vote with the regular organization this time.

CORDIAL

Invitation to Kentucky to Attend the Unveiling of the Monument to Brave Sons at Chattanooga.

FRANKFORT, KY., November 4.—Governor Bradley issued the following proclamation this afternoon in reference to the unveiling of the Kentucky monument at Chickamauga Park on November 25th:

"On the 25th day of this month the Kentucky monument will be dedicated at Chickamauga Park. It is erected by legislative authority in common honor of the Kentucky Union and Confederate soldiers, living and dead, who more than a third of a century ago contended with each other on that bloody field, and by their bravery and heroism reflected undying credit upon their native State. In no other battle during the Civil war were engaged so many soldiers from this State. Such an occasion will never again be presented, for never will our people engage in such another conflict, and after it has ceased, forgetful of all save its glories which are our common heritage, meet to pay equal tribute to contending factions. Love and reverence for the dead, respect and admiration for the living alike demand that this dedication, in point of numbers, respectability and fervid patriotism should be such as will be creditable to the State, draw its people more closely together in the bonds of brotherly love and prove an inspiration to future generations. For the accomplishment of these noble purposes the various societies and orders throughout the Commonwealth are requested to send representative uniformed bodies, and the citizens generally are most earnestly invited to attend."

D. HUNT & SON.

BORN AT MAYS LICK.

C. H. Summers, Chief Electrician of the Western Union. Expires Suddenly in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—C. H. Summers, chief electrician of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was suddenly seized with heart failure at a late hour last night while walking with a friend. He was carried to 220 O'Farrell street, where he expired a few moments later. Mr. Summers was well known throughout the country and was on the coast on a trip, combining business with pleasure.

Chas. H. Summers was a native of Kentucky. He entered the telegraph service in 1854 as an operator on the old Pittsburg, Cincinnati and Louisville telegraph line, being built over the highway from Pittsburg to Louisville. After this line was consolidated with the Western Union Telegraph Company he worked at different points as an operator and in 1859 while working at Indianapolis was offered and accepted a good position on the railroad lines. Indianapolis was his headquarters until 1867, when he was made Superintendent of telegraph of the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette railroad telegraph lines and located at Cincinnati. In 1869 he was called to Chicago as chief electrician of the Western division of the Western Union Telegraph Company by Gen. Anson Stager. He has been in the service of this company as electrician ever since.

Long experience with the telegraph company had made Mr. Summers a veritable telegraph encyclopedia. He had traveled over and inspected the telegraph company's lines so often that he carried a map of the great system of lines and offices in his mind and this familiarity enabled him to decide at once upon all matters referred to his department. Mr. Summers had some rare experience in the line of duty. He was once blown up on a steamboat on the Ohio river, captured by the Confederates, shot by the Mexicans on the Texas border, blown up in an underground manhole in the streets of Chicago, but to the end he kept attending to business as usual. Mr. Summers had a large acquaintance among the prominent men of the country as well as with the craft and was perfectly at home in any part of the Western country. In addition to his electrical duties he was a man of unerring judgment in all matters connected with his business and was very much endeared to all officers of the Western Union Company.

Mr. Summers was born in Mayslick and was a nephew of the late Jasper M. Hixson, of this city. He leaves a number of relatives in this city and county. Deceased resided in Maysville at one time.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

IMPORTANT RULING.

Receipts May Be Given By Bank Depositors
For Money Withdrawn—Stamp
Not Necessary.

A ruling with reference to the war revenue act, which will be of the greatest interest to persons having dealings with banks, has been made by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Scott.

Some time ago one of the Cincinnati banks endeavored to evade the placing of a revenue stamp on its checks by permitting the depositors to give receipts instead for the money which they drew out. Other banks, of course, objected to this procedure and the matter was submitted to the Attorney General for an opinion. In accordance with the latter, depositors of banks can draw out money without affixing a stamp to a check and instead therefor give receipts.

This, however, holds good only where the depositors themselves withdraw the money. Others who present checks for payment must affix a stamp thereto as usual.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs.
